Original Medicare

(Allows you to see any doctor that accepts Medicare)

PART A

- Hospital Insurance
- Most people get premium-free Part A.

PART B

- Most people will pay the standard premium amount. If your adjusted gross income is above a certain amount, you may pay an Income Related Monthly Adjustment Amount (IRMAA). See page 12 for more information.

Inpatient Hospital:

- $1,600 deductible per benefit period
- $400 per day for day 61 - 90 of each benefit period
- $800 per “lifetime reserve day” after day 90 of each benefit period (up to a maximum of 60 days over your lifetime)

Skilled Nursing Care:

- $0 for the first 20 days of each benefit period
- $200 per day for days 21-100 of each benefit period
- You pay all cost for each day after day 100 of the benefit period

- Hospice approved services and amounts are covered by Medicare
- May include some medications

Part B: Medical Insurance (Doctors Visits)

- Medicare Pays 80% after a $226 Annual Deductible.
- Part B premium will be deducted from your Social Security check if you are collecting Social Security.
- If you are not collecting Social Security, you will get billed quarterly.

Part B: Late Enrollment Penalty

- If you do not sign up for Part B (Medical Insurance) when you are first eligible, you may have to pay a penalty to get it later, which will last for as long as you have Medicare.
- You won't pay a late enrollment penalty if you meet all 3 of the following conditions:
 - You are actively employed
 - You are on creditable group coverage
 - Your employer has over 20 employees
- You may have a Special Enrollment Period if you or your spouse is working and covered under a group health plan.
- Your monthly premium for Part B may go up 10% for each full 12-month period that you could have had Part B but didn't sign up for it.

Part C: Medicare Advantage Plan

- Original Medicare gets put aside but you are still required to pay the Part B premium.
- Medicare Advantage plans roll all benefits into one plan including a drug benefit which works the same way as a stand-alone Part D plan.
- Medicare Advantage plans have their own network of health care providers. It's important to check your plan's provider network to make sure you get the care you need at the lowest cost.
- All Medicare Advantage plans must be as good as or better than Original Medicare.
